Obituary

On August 23, 1905, a baby girl was born into the family of Mary and John Walker in Fort Worth, Texas. They named her Nora Beatrice. This bright eyed girl received her schooling there.

At an early age at Lone's Chapel, she was saved and traveled with her mother and other Missionaries working wherever there were needs—natural, physical or spiritual.

Sister Nora Wilson knew Bishop Samuel M. Crouch in Texas and after arriving in Los Angeles, she connected under his leadership. She has served as President of the local Prayer and Bible Band; President of the Local and District Nurses Units; a loyal member of all auxiliaries.

She loved to minister to the sick, lonely and discouraged. She was faithful to most funerals in her nurse's uniform.

Feeling bad was no excuse for Sister Wilson to stop going. She was a Servant of God.

Sister Nora Wilson lived with her brother on West Santa Barbara until her demise Saturday, December 2, 1978 at 5:30 p.m. at Gardena Memorial Hospital. This Thursday, December 7, 1978, her brother, Angus Walker joined her.

Those who remain with cherished memories are first cousins: Mrs. Hester Evans of Richmond, California, Mrs. Carol Jones of Vallejo, California, Mr. Oscar Young and wife of Palo Alto, California, Mr. Floyd Cooper and wife of San Jose, California, Mrs. Bernice Jones of Denver, Colorado, Mrs. Addie Bell Hamilton, Mrs. Doris Johnson and Mr. Cicero Young and wife, all of Fort Worth, Texas; other relatives and many, many friends.
